

Adult Leader Meeting

January 23, 2007

1. Ski trip is going well. Tim will send another payment. They will have another meeting the Monday before the trip.
2. Scout Sunday: basically the same program as last year. They will need scouts for color guard and possibly band and orchestra scouts to play if they want to. Chaplain's Aide is responsible to get the scouts and adults to sign in. Talk of a certification of appreciation for the church. Recharter presented later. Scouts can bring peanut butter and cereal to donate if they want. Andy will announce at PLC. Scout Sabbath Feb. 16th. Meet at the church at 7pm or the temple at 7:45.
3. Webelos: In early Feb. give the numbers to Cindy. 8-12 scouts possibly. Den Chiefs could give a more formal presentation to the packs about our troop. District is getting more proactive with Webelos. On the Chicken sheet, there is a list of Webelos looking for troops. Parents concerned our troop is too big and their son would get lost. 28 camping experiences this year. More visual aides to show the new boys, perhaps a slide presentation of our troop in action. Other troops are making themselves visible to the Webelos.
4. Summer Camp: slow sign-up. 21 scouts so far. $60 per scout due 2/1. We will do a calling post. Reserved initially for 73 scouts. Accept merit badge request in early March. Kenny is the scoutmaster for this year and is looking for Assistant Scoutmaster that he can train for 2008.
5. Feb. 1st: Order of the Arrow elections. Scouts need to be known outside their patrol to usually get elected. 25 or so are eligible. Have scouts stand up at the meeting so scouts can put names with faces. Bradley will be doing elections. Scouts have to go to an Ordeal, one of three. 2 adults nominated for O/A. and must also attend Ordeal. Requirements: scout must be First Class, have 15 nights of camping including Summer Camp and approval of Scoutmaster. The scouts will be named at the Spring Camporee on Tap out. It is a surprise.
6. Spring Camporee: met Sat. for catapult specifications. Committee is meeting Thursday night. Frank Gerald is the Camping Chair for District. There is a flyer on the Chicken Sheet. Patches on ordered yet but have the design. Will order during last week of Feb. At Feb. meetings, they will talk to the scouts about the Camporee. Trees will run the Catapult game. Each patrol is designing and painting their own dragon target for the catapult game. Committee will supply the wood. Patrol cooking. There will be 2-3 cook teams, adult staffers needed.

7. Action packers have all gone home with their patrols. New lock on the left side of shed. There is a 4-drawer file cabinet for anyone who wants it. Pamela Roberts wants it. Mrs. Einertson won't meet anyone during the week to get stuff out of the shed. They must get it Monday night.
8. Green Bar: scout 13 or older. Leadership training. Not yet posted on Council website. Must sign up online.
9. Resource Survey given out by Mr. Richstein. He only got one form back. We have lost some MB counselors and need some more. Please fill out survey.
10. Silver Beaver Award. Dennis Rowe is going to get it this year. Scouting's highest volunteer award. Banquet at the Cobb Galleria on Feb. 28th. $37/ person.
11. Quality Unit: everyone is trained. ASMs must have basic training. Recharter ASMs must have been to Scoutmaster Fundamentals. Please communicate this to upcoming ASMs. 100% of active trained leaders. Committee members do the Committee Challenge.
12. Feb. 27th: conditioning hikes, long and short. 8:30 at Wendys.
13. Yorktown trip: everything is set.
