

Patrol Leader's Leader Council

December 13, 2004

1. Roster Updated. People who did not re-charter are not in roster.
2. Quartermasters are to give Mr. Moultrie a list of action packers that are still out. No patrol leadership signed in books until action packers are checked back in.
3. Troop Guide: There were 4 or 5 Cub Scouts who attended the Bethlehem Walk Lock-In with their parent.
4. Stephen Poole is going to get the scrapbook from Craig Kearney and have it at the first meeting in January.
5. Joseph Seibert (Librarian) has a new Library box. Jonathan showed him how to keep the Library up to date.
6. Michael Slother has a flyer for Scout Sabbath and Scout Sunday and will send to the Webmaster.
7. Trees' Report: They went to the Holiday Party, participated in Scouting for Food (100%) and are the Program Patrol for the January Meetings.
8. Pirates' Report: They planned and went to the Holiday Party, participated in Scouting for Food (87.5%) and have a Patrol activity at CiCi's planned. Their Service Project is to put the Scout sign back out in front of the Church.
9. Raptor's Report: Scouting for Food (88.9%). They still need a Service Project.
10. Flaming Falcon's Report: They went to the Holiday Party, Raccoon Mountain or Aviation Merit Badge and Scouting For Food (100%)- Largest single Patrol collection.
11. Penguin's Report: Scouting For Food (100%), Holiday Party, Lock-In and plan to work on Law Merit Badge for February's Meeting.
12. Dragon's Report: Scouting For Food (75%), Holiday Party.
13. Lightning's Report: Scouting For Food (56%), Holiday Party. Patrol Meeting: planned drug awareness skits for Pack 471.
14. Road Runner's Report: Scouting For Food (88.9%), Holiday Party.
15. Sailing Adventure: Daniel Webster. Memorial Weekend, gone 1 week. 17 people going, 1-3 spots open. For information, see Mr. Neas.
16. Philmont: Trying for Council lottery since did not get National lottery.
17. Scouting for Food: Troop did 88%, 6600 cans, 94% of Troop Officers. Positive achievement. Mr. Moultrie is proud of commitment. The numbers have been turned into District.
18. Service Projects: Anacondas have been wiped out due to Scouting for Food; Raptors still need 2 Service Projects.
19. Penguins need to finish their Service project on the shed door by painting it.
20. Reflections on Holiday Party: There was not a lot of respect with the Scouts in general. Little respect for the Church property- things got spilled and were not cleaned up. Some Scouts refused to help clean up when asked by adults or Troop officers. Some of the instructions given were unclear. Scouts were excited and loud at times. A positive note- Toys for Tots: we had a large donation.
21. By next PLC, the Falcons need to have their plan for the March Meeting ready.
22. Okefenokee Trip: 1 opening left. See Mr. Moultrie as soon as possible if interested.
23. January 22nd: Traffic Safety Merit Badge.

24. Scout Sunday goal is 100% officer and 75% Scout participation. Mrs. Lundstrom will get flyer out about music by the next meeting.
25. Klondike Derby: February 11th-13th - 40 Scouts and 10 adults; site 5 Sign-up will be soon.
26. Ga. AT backpacking trip: February 18th-21st; Mr. Moultrie in charge. Serious backpacking.
27. Ga. AT backpacking trip: March 18th-20th; 2 tier plan; check-out hike.
28. Den Chief: Let Mrs. Roberts know if interested.
29. February 26th: Engineering MB. Details to follow.
30. March 10th-13th: Savannah Sea Kayaking; FUN TRIP.
31. Court of Honor: January 24th; Joseph Seibert and Keith Neas to be Master of Ceremonies.
32. We still need an OA representative.
33. Cumberland Island: Memorial Day weekend. One 20 person group.: 15 Scouts and 4-5 adults. First come first serve basis. Will keep a waiting list in case someone cancels.
34. Service project: help take down Bethlehem this Saturday. Flaming Falcons may do this.
35. A campfire may be planned for one of Jan. meetings with instructional benefit and to help Scouts work on MC the campfire.
36. Kyle Hughes and Jonathan Egbert will be MC'S for the Friday night campfire at the Klondike Derby.
