

Patrol Leader's Meeting

November 28, 2005

1. Scoutmaster Comments: Thrilled to see so many people here and the new officers. Paul and Peter Nielson sworn in to their positions.
2. Trees need to get a project to benefit the church. (Possible- help with Bethlehem take down day).
3. Pirates: trying to get a service project and planning a patrol meeting.
4. Flaming Falcons: 3 went on BP checkout, Scout Expo, and had a patrol meeting.
5. Night Hawks: Trying to get everyone caught up to first class. Patrol meeting last week and participated in Scout Expo.
6. Penguins: Scout Expo, need a service project.
7. Dragons: Scout Expo, haven't made patrol plans yet.
8. Road Runners; Citizen in the Community MB, and service project.
9. Lightning: Holiday party, Scout Expo.
10. Cobras: Expo and Patrol meeting this week.
11. Scout Expo: comments; last year, they had more troops, interesting stuff, need more planning time.
12. November Meeting: didn't get to the knots due everyone talking. Patrol Leaders should take more active role in making their patrols be quiet and set the example. More time for games.
13. December 5th: Holiday Party. Decorations- troop supplies the paper products and drinks. Each patrol brings decorations. The Road Runners are bringing the tablecloths. Mrs. Neas will coordinate Toys for Tots with Lightning. Full class A uniforms. Wrapped gift in the $8-$10 range for gift exchange (optional); unwrapped toy for donation; holiday food to share with friends.
14. December 3rd-4th: Bethlehem Lock-In: Bring age appropriate movies and video games. (G or PG). 43 Scouts and 8 adults who have signed up and need 2 more. Bring permission sheet. Starts at 10pm and ends at 7am. Plan to pick up scout before 7am. Bring snacks and drinks to share with friends. Only multi player Halo allowed (not single player). All other video games must be approved as appropriate by the SPL (in advance).
15. Mrs. Mattle and Mrs. Neas to go to December's Roundtable. Possibly take interested scouts to O/A meeting.
16. December 10th: Wolf Creek shooting: $27.00 next meeting is the cutoff. Lunch included.
17. January 9th is pine straw kick off.

18. January 13-16: Winter Backpacking. 2 tier (25-30mile & 15-22mile). Must sign up by December 12th.
19. January 27-29: Klondike Derby: No rules. $25 to confirm campsite. Our troop is in charge of a game. Dragons to coordinate with Derby planning. Mr. Murray is the ASM and Mrs. Roberts is the adult in charge.
20. Troop Leader training was voted to move from April to February 11th.
21. All Patrol Leaders' action packers must be checked in and inspected by the Quartermasters. This doesn't include the new patrols. ASPL will work with the QM to get everything inspected.
22. Mr. Murray has a patrol box for adult patrols with paper products, etc. to check out if needed.
23. The last Scoutmaster conference is January 11th and the last Board of Review is January 16th. Don't call for a BOR until you have had your SM conference. Call Mr. Richstein by Jan. 11th or 12th to schedule a BOR.