

1. Scoutmaster Comments: Welcome everyone. This is the last get together before the Planning Campout. During next month patrol leaders have a special responsibility to get with patrols and find out what activities they want to do next year to keep it exciting and fresh. Saturday morning is the planning and depending how prepared you are, the afternoon will be for fun once you are finished with the calendar and goals. There is a fine crew that will keep you well fed. After finishing, you can go to Helen, walk around the falls or do a water slide.
2. Reports: Trees: behind on service project. Chattahoochee Nature Center. Will talk to Mrs. Thorne about church service project. Deadline is planning campout. Penguin: service project done for church. Outside project will be done at Mill Springs. Held up due to carpet being put in. Patrol is working on old computers and could still use old parts. Duct Tape: retired flags. Waiting on outside project. Cobras: outside service- spreading mulch at Mill Springs and filled in sandbox. Timberwolves: Outside project: Holy Trinity church- Angel Food Ministries. Had already done inside project. Patrol meeting on July 18th. Fighting Frogs: summer Camp and made Honor Patrol. They elected PL and ASPL for the planning c/o (Jay Oliver and Dalton Muzyka). Night Hawks: started on Sept. program planning. Outside service at Sweat Mt. Park. Dragons: summer camp. 12 merit badges and 28 partials. No patrol meeting this month, but helped Keith Neas with his Eagle Project. Outside service last month. Duct Tape: working on the trailer and setting a budget. QM: large coffee pot still missing. Chaplain's Aide: wrote service for caving trip. Librarian: 5 books removed due to be being outdated. 24 overdue books. Historian: need pictures for scrapbook. There will be 2 visitors here next meeting, and it would be nice to have the scrapbook here.
3. Reflection on July meetings: Duct Tape. No problems. They scheduled a flag retirement ceremony, and it went well. The games went well. The learning part was a little long.
4. Must lunches: 13,000 lunches came from this site. There were a good amount of volunteers from this troop. Clothing was donated for Give a Kid

A chance. Mrs. Thorne thanked everyone who helped this summer and plans to bring in a big chocolate chip cookie next meeting. Awesome troop.

5. Blue cards from summer camp have been prepared. Go to your ASMs to get them
6. August 2nd: Caving trip all set. 18 going.
7. August 9th: Adult Planning Meeting: CPR after planning. $5-11 depending on whether you want a card. 7 people have signed up so far. Adults not certified should get certified. Age range of 40-50 years old most likely to need CPR.
8. August 15-17th: Patrol C/O: Patrols need to confirm whether they are going. Penguins and Trees. Ian Miller is confirmed for Ben Frazier.
9. Sept 12-14th: Family campout and Court of Honor. Allatoona Clean-up.
10. Lifeguard training done last weekend.
11. Sept. 14th: Popcorn Show and Sell at Wal-Mart on Johnson Ferry. 2p-5p.
12. August 23rd: Water Mania: Cobras are going. Caron Frazier is the adult in Charge. Mr. Rowe is looking for help to deliver program. Great way to help him since he always helps us.
13. August 4th: Give out popcorn packets. Sell early and you get rewarded. Sept. 15th, 22nd and Oct 6th: popcorn can be checked out to deliver as you sell. Oct. 13th: collecting forms and money. October 20th: the absolute last day to turn in orders and money.
14. Sign up for Scout master conferences. Mr. Moultrie can only do so many before the COH. Last SM conf. and Board of Review is Sept. 8th.
15. Scout Expo: November 15th. Decide what to do. Ticket booth again or set up a booth or both. Theme is Carnival of scouting. We have the option to have Webelos camp with us at the park. Recruiting opportunity. Voted for ticket booth again. We need to get a committee started with the SPL, ADPL and, Mrs. Jacquet. Sam Makte, Dylan West and Brandon Jacquet volunteered.
16. Summer camp committee: finished with a good summer week and worked hard. We need a new summer camp committee for next year. (SPL, ASPL, Ian Miller, Dylan West and Vidur Govindaraj signed up.
17. If patrol leaders could come up with a patrol member who could help plan activities for the Court of Honor. It would be greatly appreciated.
18. August 18th: bring in scout patches to use for the program.

19. Bring in old computer parts. No monitors, mice or keyboards please.
Penguin Patrol.
