

1. Cumberland Island: 14 have signed up, 4 adults and 10 scouts. May need to use the trailer or get a 5th vehicle. Big expense with pulling trailer. Reservations for 14 to ride ferry.
2. BP trip to Pine MT: fun trip this past weekend.
3. NYLT: 4 scouts have signed up. Scott, Tim, Sam, and ? Logan may be the 5th. A couple of scouts are still trying to decide.
4. National Honor Roll: (Patrol): Requirements to fill. Good building experience for patrols.
5. Bethlehem Walk: everything went well. Recommended to notify police that scouts are suppose to be there.
6. Flour War: Great time, long day. Panty hose worked well. Few minor injuries. Well set up. Need to restrict boundaries.
7. Winter Campout at Bert Adams: Wilderness Survival Course was offered. It got down to single digits with the temperature. It was colder than SWC. Board games were played and adults were pulled in to play. Mrs. Ritchie was there. They will go back next year.
8. SWC: Successful and good representation last night at Court of Honor. Registration for next year's SWC is done by the end of Sept.
9. Lots of activities were done and successful in Dec. and Jan. this year.
10. Winter Bp: 17 mile hike. Good weather.
11. Court of Honor: good attendance.
12. Roundtable: Feb. 7th. Tylee and Diana will be going this month.
13. District Banquet: Feb. 1st. 13-14 people are planning to attend. Awards for table decorations.
14. Recruiting: Mr. Bilkert. Several scouts are coming from 1417. Several scouts from Addison visited the troop. Mt. View scouts are scattering all over the county. One dad from Mt. View said troop is too big. It was suggested to have a slide show in background of troop's activities when scouts and their parents visit.
15. Sam Johnson is not registered yet but has filled out an application. He was Scoutmaster when Ferrell and Ivy's son was in this troop. The ASM handbook was done by Sam as a Wood Badge ticket item.
16. Summer camp: 10 scouts so far and 5 from Davis have committed to go. Payment is due to Council. ASMs get an inventory of scouts in your patrol that needs to go. T-shirts need to be voted on at PLC. Camp planning link will be out soon. Adult coverage for camp is done. Wendy read a list of scouts who have already signed up.
17. Merit Badge Clinic: Feb. 2nd from 9a-2p. 10 MB being offered. 80 scouts are attending. Church is reserved. One scout is coming from South Carolina. Fundraiser for Philmont Crew: pizza and drinks.
18. Order of the Arrow elections: Feb. 4th. Ferrell will get information to ASMs as to which scouts are eligible. O/A rep. is working on an email. If scout is elected, he must attend an Ordeal. 30 scouts must attend the meeting to vote that night. There is no limit how many can be elected.

19. Scout Sabbath: Feb. 8th and Scout Sunday: Feb. 10th. Encourage scout and their family to attend. There will be some representation at the early morning service on Scout Sunday. Plans to share with Pack 1714.
20. Scouting for Food: First meeting in March. 50 cans/scout. Council goal. Pizza party to first patrol with 100% participation. Buffaloes have won the past 2 years. Final countdown will be March 18th.
21. ISLT (Introduction to Leadership Skills Training): March 2nd. First class or nearly first class. Mrs. Moss is the adult in charge. Dalton is leading this. Buffaloes need to renew their training or do NYLT.
22. Spring BP: March 8th-10th. Standing Indian, Deep Gap. Dalton is scout in charge.
23. Patrol campouts are on PLC agenda. Patrol leaders should know their patrol's plans.
24. Sea Base: More than 20 people want to go. The list has to be cut off or have more than 1 crew. We have 4 committed adults. There are 20 crew, 12 crew or 8 crew. Bahamas: 8/12/20 crews. Fla. Keys: 8 crew. Land base crew also offered. We need to prioritize what we want. We get first choice if we get lottery. Lottery closes in Feb. Dates we are looking at are end of May, first of June 2014. Cost about $1500.
25. Pine straw sales. Pine straw $4.25/bale. Scout gets .50/bale into his scout account. This fundraiser runs through April.
26. Camp cards: $5. $2.50 goes into the scout's account. Both fundraisers help build up their accounts to help pay for trips and activities.
