What Makes a Trained Leader?

Adult leaders are considered trained once they have completed Youth Protection Training and the required courses listed below. Once trained, they may wear the official Trained emblem on the left sleeve.

Required Training

ALL LEADERS Youth Protection Training: required for all registered adults. Must be re-taken at least every 2 years.	CUB SCOUT LEADERS Specific training for every Cub Scouting role is offered. If a change in leadership position occurs, the leader must take the training for that position. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tiger, Wolf, Bear & Webelos Den Leaders: Den Leader Position-Specific Training (2015 Syllabus covers all 5 levels in one class) • Cubmaster and Assistant Cubmaster: Cubmaster Position-Specific Training • Pack Committee: Pack Committee Position-Specific Training also called Pack Committee Challenge • Pack Trainer: as Committee above & Fundamentals of Training
BOY SCOUT LEADERS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SMs and ASMs <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster Leader-Specific Training 2. Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills (IOLS) • Committee Members: Troop Committee Challenge
VENTURE LEADERS Advisors & Committees (VLST) and Youth (VLSC) Venture Leader-Specific Training

Supplemental Training

There is a myriad of extra training: some for edification, some required for certain events. Partial list below.

CUB LEADERS BALOO: Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation: Required to have at least 1 adult with BALOO training on a Pack overnight camping trip. Recommend that at least 2 adults have training since if 1 can't attend, the camping shouldn't occur. Rangemaster Training: BBs and Archery at District and Council camps are led by volunteers who must have this training to put it on. Otherwise, it won't occur. Recommend at least 1 leader in each pack have this training. Webelos Outdoor Leaders Training (aka O.W.L.s.): This course is designed to help Webelos leaders enhance the outdoor program for the Webelos Scouts in their den by teaching some basic outdoor skills as well as skills needed to complete many of the Webelos activity badges.	GENERAL University of Scouting: Day filled with many classes. Participant can choose which classes to take. Some are BSA syllabus for training, others are skills, ideas, crafts, etc. Counts toward Training Awards in lieu of Roundtable. Wood Badge: premier leadership BSA training course. Learn tools in listening, communicating, conflict management, project planning and leading change; to better understand and leverage diversity and generational differences; to have the leadership skills to be a better Scout Leader for the youth's benefit. Powder Horn: provides an intro to the resources needed to lead youth through a program of outdoor/high-adventure. The course presenters are expert consultants in each activity. It is not a certification event. It is for any youth or adult interested in experiencing a unit-level, high-adventure program. College of Commissioner Science: Once a year, full-day of specialized classes for all Commissioner positions.
BOY SCOUT LEADERS Archery, Rifle, Shotgun, Climbing/COPE: To lead these activities or Merit Badges, leaders must have the appropriate training.

Note: This document is focused toward Cub and Boy Scout Leaders. For a complete list of training for all positions, visit the National Training website: <http://www.scouting.org/Training/adult.aspx>
